

VOHRALIK MEDIATION

JOHN P VOHRALIK
ACCREDITED MEDIATOR, NMAS

BACKGROUND

John Vohralik holds a commerce (accounting major) and law degree. He was admitted as a solicitor in 1984 and has practiced in commercial litigation for over 30 years. Since the late 1980's, John has been an active advocate of alternative dispute resolution including as a member of LEADR's (now known as the Resolution Institute) panel of mediators since 1993. As a solicitor, John has extensive experience representing clients in mediation, and understands the commercial as well as personal dynamics of a successful mediation. In 2009, John was appointed as a panel mediator on the Franchising Code of Conduct Panel. John has been a Nationally Accredited Mediator from commencement of the national accreditation system in late 2010. John is also a Law Society of New South Wales panel mediator and a former Local Court Civil Arbitrator.

John's commercial litigation experience covers many areas, including: Corporations Act matters, director/shareholder disputes, insolvency, intellectual property, protection of confidential information, consumer law, trade practices, estate disputes, contract breaches, general equity litigation, injunctions, commercial and general insurance claims, professional negligence and commercial and residential construction disputes. Having been involved in insurance policy drafting and compliance with the General Insurance Code Practice, he has a broad understanding of insurance policy construction and claims.
